Dear friends,

Jesus said, "Come unto me, ALL you that are weary and carrying heavy burdens, and I will give you rest." All of us in the LGBTQ+ community know what it's like to carry a heavy burden, and we know what it's like to do that in secret. Too often we've not heard these words of comfort and healing from the Church, but have instead been shunned from the very communities that are supposed to show love, grace, mercy, and healing. In so doing, the Church has failed to recognize the beauty and wonder of God's creation, and has sinned in the rejection of her very own children.

Tonight we come together, both as individuals and as institutions, to declare and celebrate together the vastness of creation that reflects the endless possibilities that begin in God. Tonight, we come together to acknowledge our faults and to turn again toward one another in truth, in healing, and in communion. Tonight, we come to worship a God who is beyond all our classifications, all of our categories, and even language itself, and whose holiness, whose complete transcendence, is the epitome of the word Queer. Tonight, we recognize this place to be Queer-space, because it is God's space. This space is Queer-space, your space, because you are God's beloved, as Paul wrote: "For all things are yours, whether... the world or life or death or the present or the future—all belong to you, and you belong to Christ, and Christ belongs to God."

Tonight, in this space, may you find rest for your soul, hope for the world, and love to set your heart on fire!

There is Good News for us, for we too are called God's Beloved! Here at this Table, you are more than simply honored guests, for you are Children of the Most High. Welcome home!!

Grace, peace and love,

UTK Tyson House Student Foundation

Opening Acclamation

Blessed be the holy Trinity, + one God who is merciful and gracious, slow to anger, and abounding in steadfast love.

We have gathered to hear the story of God and God's people.

It is a story of God's mercy and faithfulness.

It is our story, for we are God's people.

Confession & Forgiveness

Please sit or kneel as you are able.

The confession is sung in a call and response style.

Let us confess our sins against God and our neighbor.

I confess, I confess to Almighty God and to you my brothers – I confess, I confess to Almighty God and to you my sisters - That I have sinned, though my own fault, in my thoughts and in my words, That I have sinned, in what I've done and in what I have failed to do.

And I ask you, and all the church, to pray for me, pray my siblings –
And I ask you, and all the saints to, to pray for me, pray my family –
And I ask you to pray for me to the Lord our God.

Almighty God have mercy on you, +forgive you all your sins through our Lord Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in everlasting life. Amen.

Receiving the Word

Prayer of the Day

The Lord be with you. And also with you.

Let us pray,

Ocean of Mercy and Treasury of all Blessing, in Jesus the Christ you put on human form and entered the fullness of our humanity, embracing our broken world and bearing our suffering alongside us. As we remember a riot that broke out fifty years ago at the Stonewall Inn in New York as a response to centuries of victimization and oppression, we lift up those lives and their voices, remembering the suffering of your Queer children throughout the world. We ask you to pour out your Holy Spirit upon us that we may give voice to those without one, and that we might work together to end the oppression of your children who are hurt by discrimination based upon their sexual orientation or gender identity, seeing in all persons the Image of their Creator. This we ask in the Name of the One who transcended eternity to show us the truth of unity in love, Jesus the Christ. Amen.

Please be seated.

First Reading: Proverbs 10:9-12

A reading from Proverbs:

Whoever walks in integrity walks securely, but whoever follows perverse ways will be found out. Whoever winks the eye causes trouble, but the one who rebukes boldly makes peace. The mouth of the righteous is a fountain of life, but the mouth of the wicked conceals violence. Hatred stirs up strife, but love covers all offenses.

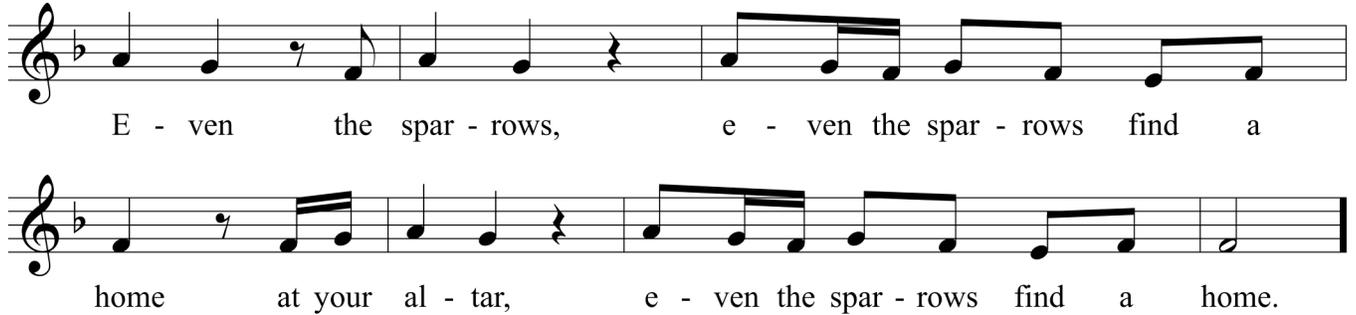

The Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Psalm 84

All Sing Refrain , Reader speaks verses

Refrain:

E - ven the spar - rows, e - ven the spar - rows find a home at your al - tar, e - ven the spar - rows find a home.

How dear to me is your dwelling, O LORD of hosts! My soul has a desire and longing for the courts of the LORD; my heart and my flesh rejoice in the living God. The sparrow has found her a house and the swallow a nest where she may lay her young; by the side of your altars, O LORD of hosts, my King and my God. Happy are they who dwell in your house! they will always be praising you.

Refrain

Happy are the people whose strength is in you! whose hearts are set on the pilgrims' way. Those who go through the desolate valley will find it a place of springs, for the early rains have covered it with pools of water. They will climb from height to height, and the God of gods will reveal himself in Zion.

Refrain

LORD God of hosts, hear my prayer; hearken, O God of Jacob. Behold our defender, O God; and look upon the face of your Anointed. For one day in your courts is better than a thousand in my own room, and to stand at the threshold of the house of my God than to dwell in the tents of the wicked.

Refrain

For the LORD God is both sun and shield; he will give grace and glory; No good thing will the LORD withhold from those who walk with integrity. O LORD of hosts, happy are they who put their trust in you!

Refrain

Second Reading: 1 John 4:1-12

A reading from the first letter of John:

Beloved, do not believe every spirit, but test the spirits to see whether they are from God; for many false prophets have gone out into the world. By this you know the Spirit of God: every spirit that confesses that Jesus Christ has come in the flesh is from God, and every spirit that does not confess Jesus is not from God. And this is the spirit of the antichrist, of which you have heard that it is coming; and now it is already in the world. Little children, you are from God, and have conquered them; for the one who is in you is greater than the one who is in the world. They are from the world; therefore what they say is from the world, and the world listens to them. We are from God. Whoever knows God listens to us, and whoever is not from God does not listen to us. From this we know the spirit of truth and the spirit of error.

Beloved, let us love one another, because love is from God; everyone who loves is born of God and knows God. Whoever does not love does not know God, for God is love. God's love was revealed among us in this way: God sent his only Son into the world so that we might live through him. In this is love, not that we loved God but that he loved us and sent his Son to be the atoning sacrifice for our sins. Beloved, since God loved us so much, we also ought to love one another. No one has ever seen God; if we love one another, God lives in us, and his love is perfected in us.

The Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Gospel Reading: Matthew 5:1 - 16

The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Matthew.

Glory to you, Lord Christ.

When Jesus saw the crowds, he went up the mountain; and after he sat down, his disciples came to him. Then he began to speak, and taught them, saying:

"Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

"Blessed are those who mourn, for they will be comforted.

"Blessed are the meek, for they will inherit the earth.

"Blessed are those who hunger and thirst for righteousness, for they will be filled.

"Blessed are the merciful, for they will receive mercy.

"Blessed are the pure in heart, for they will see God.

"Blessed are the peacemakers, for they will be called children of God.

"Blessed are those who are persecuted for righteousness' sake, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven."

"Blessed are you when people revile you and persecute you and utter all kinds of evil against you falsely on my account. Rejoice and be glad, for your reward is great in heaven, for in the same way they persecuted the prophets who were before you.

"You are the salt of the earth; but if salt has lost its taste, how can its saltiness be restored? It is no longer good for anything, but is thrown out and trampled under foot.

"You are the light of the world. A city built on a hill cannot be hid. No one after lighting a lamp puts it under the bushel basket, but on the lampstand, and it gives light to all in the house. In the same way, let your light shine before others, so that they may see your good.

The Gospel of the Lord.

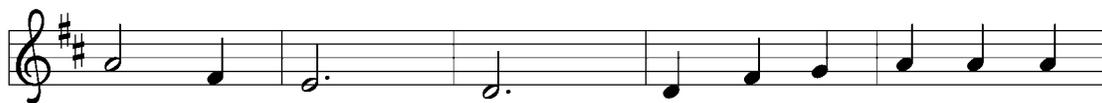

Praise to you, Lord Christ.

Please be seated.

Prayers of the People

Congregation may sit or kneel as able

God of beauty, you stretched out a rainbow in the heights of heaven. Visit the rainbow of your people gathered here in prayer, and transform us with your glory.

Refrain

We thank you for the diversity of ways in which we identify, love, and live in the world. Push us to transcend the current limits of our understanding and to see beauty in those who are different from ourselves.

Refrain

Intercessor: We pray for those who suffer discrimination or violence because of their sexual orientation, gender identity, or gender expression. Help us work to ensure that everyone's beauty is recognized and honored.

Refrain

We remember the leaders and activists who made possible the freedoms we now enjoy. May they rest forever in the beauty of paradise.

Refrain

God of beauty, to you no one is lost, no one is left behind, no one is the price to be paid for the greater good. Give us the same restless desire, the same fierce joy, which finds grace in every child of earth and makes a community open to all. We ask this in the name of Jesus, who loved the world and did not count the cost.

Amen.

Peace

The Peace of the Lord be always with you.

And also with you.

The Holy Eucharist

The Lord be with you.

And also with you.

Lift up your hearts.

We lift them to the Lord.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

It is right to give our thanks and praise.

We praise you and we bless you, holy and gracious God, source of life abundant. From before time you made ready the creation. Your Spirit moved over the deep and brought all things into being: sun, moon, and stars; earth, winds, and waters; and every living thing. You made us in your image, and taught us to walk in your ways. But we rebelled against you, and wandered far away; and yet, as a mother cares for her children, you would not forget us. Time and again you called us to live in the fullness of your love.

And so this day we join with Saints and Angels in the chorus of praise that rings through eternity, lifting our voices to magnify you as we sing:

Ho - san - na in the high - est!'.

Glory and honor and praise to you, holy and living God. To deliver us from the power of sin and death and to reveal the riches of your grace, you looked with favor upon Mary, your willing servant, that she might conceive and bear a son, Jesus the holy child of God. Living among us, Jesus loved us.

He broke bread with outcasts and sinners, healed the sick, and proclaimed good news to the poor. He yearned to draw all the world to himself yet we were heedless of his call to walk in love. Then, the time came for him to complete upon the cross the sacrifice of his life, and to be glorified by you.

On the night before he died for us, Jesus was at table with his friends. He took bread, gave thanks to you, broke it, and gave it to them, and said: "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

As supper was ending, Jesus took the cup of wine. Again, he gave thanks to you, gave it to them, and said: "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is poured out for you and for all for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Now gathered at your table, O God of all creation, and remembering Christ, crucified and risen, who was and is and is to come, we offer to you our gifts of bread and wine, and ourselves, a living sacrifice.

Pour out your Spirit upon these gifts that they may be the Body and Blood of Christ. Breathe your Spirit over the whole earth and make us your new creation, the Body of Christ given for the world you have made.

In the fullness of time bring us, with Mary, Phillip, the Ethiopian Eunuch, and all your saints, from every tribe and language and people and nation, to feast at the banquet prepared from the foundation of the world.

Through Christ and with Christ and in Christ, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, to you be honor, glory, and praise, for ever and ever. AMEN.

And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,

Mark Miller Lords Prayer

Fraction Anthem

This is the table, not of the righteous, but of the poor in spirit. It is made ready for those who love God and who want to love God more. So come, you who have much faith and you who have little. You who have been here often and you who have not been for a long time or ever before. You who have tried to follow and all of us who have failed. These are the gifts of God for the People of God. Christ invites everyone to be known and fed here.

All are welcome to the Lord's Table. We will be receiving communion by intinction today. The first cup contains wine, the second juice. You may eat the bread and then drink from the cup, or you may dip your bread into the cup. If you would prefer a blessing instead, cross your arms over your chest and the clergy will give you a blessing. After receiving communion, you are invited to come to the altar rail to receive prayers for healing.
